It is expressly agreed that in the event any covenants or conditions or restrictions hereinabove contained or any portion thereof is held invalid or void, such validity or voidness shall in no way affect any valid covenant, condition or restriction.

Clause 11. If the parties hereto or any of them or their heirs, or assigns shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants or restrictions herein, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any other lot or lots in said subdivision to prosecute any proceedings at law or inequity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such covenant, or restrictions, and either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for such violations. A breach of any of the foregoing conditions, or any re-entry by reasons of such breach, shall not defeat or render invalid the lien or any mortgage or deed of trust made in good faith and for value as to said premises or any part thereof, but said covenants and conditions shall be binding upon and effective against any subsequent owner(s) of said premises.

Clause 12. Nothing in the foregoing restrictions contained shall operate or be construed as to prevent the use of any portion of said tract for any of the matters necessary or convenient to fulfill and carry out the objects and purposes of any public improvement district created in connection with the development of said tract.

Clause 13. The foregoing restrictions, covenants and conditions apply specifically to the real property described in documents attached herewith as Exhibit "A" and recorded in the office of the El Dorado County Recorder, State of California, and does not necessarily apply to nor attach to any other land which the grantor now owns, or hereafter acquire.
