Updates

Congratulations to Engineer Paramedic Greg Schwegler from Fire Station 88 for being awarded a medal of valor by the El Dorado County Board of Supervisors for his actions during a water rescue call in March of this year. Engineer Schwegler was also nominated for the Statewide Emergency Medical Services Authority Meritorious Service Award, for which he was selected and will receive the award during a banquet in San Francisco.

The Gold Country Regional Chapter workshop was held at the Cameron Park Community Services District in November. Legislative updates were provided by California Special District Associates and Dr. Emilyn Sheffield, professor at Chico State University, gave a lively presentation on recruiting millennials and the dynamics of a multigenerational workplace.

A new Mature Adults page has been added to the website. Visit this page at www.cameronpark.org/mature-adults/ to keep up to date on the latest classes, speakers, luncheons and special events for mature adults.

The Google Website Analytics numbers keep growing for the Cameron Park Community Services District website! Keep using the website to register for classes, research events, view recent photos and more.

Events

Santa will be driving through Cameron Park with the fire department for the annual Santa Parade on Friday – Sunday, December 9th – 11th. He will also be available for private visits for only $60 per time slot, December 7, 8, 13, 14, 15 and 19. Book early as this does fill up!
