Annette Carasco

Thurs. May 9

5:30 - 7:00pm

A student of poetry at the San Francisco Writer's Studio, Beatrice has a background in the Visual Arts, with an Italian Government Scholarship for Fine Art Painting in Rome. She has an MA in the Psychology of Symbols and was a Creative Writing teacher at the Sacramento Women's Wisdom ARTS program. Her poetry has been published in Chapbook: Lara Gularte and The Poets of The Firehouse Sessions, Cold River Press: 'Voices Anthology', and Literary Magazine: 'Colossus: Body'. Beatrice lives in Placerville.

Annette Carasco was born and raised in the East Bay. She spent eighteen years in the Midwest before returning to California in 2010. She has loved writing and the written word since she was a small child and for the last year she has been attending class through Ripe Fruit Writing in San Francisco. Her poetry has been published in the Mountain Democrat and she is currently working on a memoir which she hopes to publish in the next year. She lives in Diamond Springs..
