

Writers Workshop

@ the Cameron Park Library
led by author Beverly Parayno

First Meeting
March 7th!

WHAT: A group of writers that meets regularly to read, discuss, and critique one another's writing. Bring up to 6 pages of prose, double-spaced. Focus: Fiction, essays & memoir.

WHY: Workshops offer community for writers & safe space to seek constructive feedback, encourage development, and gain inspiration.

WHEN: First Tuesday of each Month @ 5:30 pm

WHO: For Adults. Beginners Welcome!

COST: FREE

About Beverly Parayno

Beverly Parayno is a Filipino American writer raised in San Jose. Her fiction, memoir, essays, and author interviews have been published in Narrative Magazine, Huizache, Bellingham Review, Warscapes, The Rumpus, and Southword: New Writing from Ireland. Her story “Housecleaning” has been translated into Mandarin and published in World Literature, a journal of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. Parayno’s debut short story collection Wildflowers is forthcoming in spring 2023 (Philippine American Writers and Artists, Inc.).

She holds a BA in English from San Jose State University, an MA in English from University College Cork, and an MFA in Writing from Vermont College of Fine Arts. Parayno lives and works as a writer, animal communicator, and grants consultant in Cameron Park.

